Spiralling Fuel Costs Hit Already Inflated School Heat Budget

By Linda S. Corbett

Cursed with the same skyrocketing electric bills as homeowners about town, Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert told the school committee Tuesday night he will probably have to go back to the town before the end of the year for money to pay the utilities.

Seifert said that while conservation efforts have brought energy consumption throughout the system down "significantly," the colder-than-average winter and rising fuel prices have combined to cause a 25 percent increase in costs for the schools.

What they had felt was a sufficiently inflated budget when it was prepared last spring, has turned out to be not enough, he said.

Seifert said the schools spent $198,000 for electricity through January of this year, compared to $151,000 through January of 1980. He said he expects they'll go at least $50,000 over the $300,000 budgeted for the entire school year.

Complimenting them on energy-saving efforts, Seifert singled out four schools for discussion. Sanborn, he said, is using 21.8 fewer kilowatt hours this year than in the 1979-80 school year, while South is down 8.2 percent, West Elementary is down 21.3 percent and Shawsheen, down 6.2 percent.

Meanwhile, he said that degree days through December of 1980 totalled 2292, compared to 1844 during the same period in 1979. The hardest months, of course, were November, with 706 degree days (compared to 484 in 1979) and December with 1120 (compared to 873 in 1979).

At the same time, kilowatt costs were up 2 percent at Sanborn, down 4 percent at South and 2 percent at West, and up 10

Abramson Stepping Down

By Sue Aucella Deacon

James Abramson, chairman of the board of selectmen, announced Monday that he will not seek reelection at the end of his first term next month.

"The main reason I've decided not to run is that I have been active in the town for about eight years," Abramson explained. "I just feel that after awhile, you lose a little bit of your intensity."

The chairman also cited business obligations as a reason for his decision not to run for a second term: "There is an increasing workload at our company (Capital Distributing Co., Inc., Railroad Avenue) and I will be doing more travelling. I feel it would not be fair to run, knowing that I might not be able to complete the term."

In addition to serving as a selectman, Abramson is a former president of the Andover Chamber of Commerce, and has been a member of the Industrial Development Commission.

Abramson said his decision not to run for reelection was "a hard decision in a sense, because we are going into a period of time of more uncertainty than in past years, because of Proposition 2½."

He added that he hopes citizens with a business background will seek election to the board this year, because "it's good for at least one member of the board to have that background, to be familiar with budgets. It's good to have a mix on the board."

The chairman has "enjoyed" his three years as a selectman, he said. "The board has acted in almost all cases responsibly. Disagreements have been settled in a non-emotional fashion."

"It's a good board because there are no cliques," Abramson noted. "There are no set groups that have always voted together. It's a healthy board, because each

High School Principal Retiring

By Linda S. Corbett

Andover High Principal Philip Wormwood will be leaving in June, after 30 years in the Andover schools.

The school committee accepted his retirement Tuesday night "with deep regret," and Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert gave him "a lot of credit" for "withstanding the pressures of the changing times," and "maintaining a very, very fine high school through the challenging 60's and 70's."

Wormwood said yesterday he is looking for "a little more peace and quiet," and the opportunity to do some things that he hasn't been able to do.

"At 60," he said, "one starts to get a little reflective. You realize that life on earth isn't forever, so if there are things you want to do, you ought to be rather calculating about finding the time to do them."

In the school business, he said, "you've got to expect crises," but yesterday morning, only hours after his retirement was accepted, he went through something that "reaffirmed my action."

He said he was called into another administrator's office to talk to a pupil who had been caught smoking marijuana in the lavatory. Then he went to the clinic, "which looks like the Battle of Bull Run" from a pupil who had severely cut his arm by putting his hand through a glass fire door.

He left there to go to the gym, to find another student, and came across a girl

"out cold on the stairs." She had fainted because of natural causes, Wormwood said, "but I said, 'my God, that's a heckuva way to be an educator.'"

"A job never becomes less," he went on, "nor do the pressures."

He admitted that Prop. 2½ was part of the picture.

"I knew I wouldn't stay on for more than a few years," he said, "but the next few will be very difficult ones."

He said 2½ is causing "a downhill motion," and "I'd rather not end it that way."

He estimated it will take as many as five years "to turn this around. In that time, I fear, a lot of good people will be lost."

Wormwood, an Andover resident since he was two and a product of Andover schools, started his teaching career here in 1951. He taught English and social studies "and children" before being named principal at Andover High in 1961.

Earlier he had worked in local mills "that don't exist any more" (Marland and Tyler), in a woodworking shop, and sandblasting glass signs.

"I enjoy working with my hands," Wormwood said, "and I wouldn't be unhappy working with my hands again."

"You can see so much more of what you do with your hands than with your mind," he laughed.

"I like to be involved," he concluded. "The last thing I enjoy doing is doing nothing. I don't mind if the pace will slow down, however, while I find some things that I will find pleasurable to do."

School Chairman Elaine Viehmann said Tuesday night that it would be "hard to imagine Andover High without Phil at the head."

She too credited his leadership and his "ability to meet the needs of greatly changing times, and still come up with a fine high school."

Elm Square Redesign In Final Stages

Plans for the redesign of Elm Square, with state and federal funding assistance, are now in the final stages: The project should be put out for bids in June, with construction beginning in July, the director of Community Development and Planning told the Planning Board last week.

Community Development Director Rhys Kear told the planners that poor communications between the state and federal agencies involved have delayed the project, but that local officials have now "just about wrapped up the technical details."

He asked the planners to make several decisions on details of the project — the style of park benches (modern or Victorian), the color the mastarms on new streetlights are to be painted (bronze or silver), and the style of waste receptacles (to coordinate with the benches.)

Planning board members indicated some preference for wooden-slatted waste receptacles, and bronze-colored streetlights. But they asked for more information on bench styles before making their choice, seeking the sturdiest bench possible for easy maintenance.

The planners also discussed moving the bus stop for the local bus from in front of the public library, where the bus currently stops, to in front of town hall. They suggested that Trombly buses for commuters continue to stop at the downtown public parking lot.

Planning for the redesign of the square began two years ago. The plans call for improving the traffic flow in the square; repaving Main Street; widening and restriping Barnard Street and making it one-way, and adding new landscaping and signs to the square.

We Will Give You $10⁰⁰ To Pay Your Bills By Phone

That's right, $10.

Just for paying one of your bills by phone.

That's how convinced we are that you'll find Pay by Phone easier, faster and safer than paying your bills any other way.

In addition, you'll save the cost of a postage stamp on each bill you'd normally pay by mail. Plus all that time you don't have to spend writing and mailing checks.

What's more, you can pay one bill or many with the same phone call. And that call is toll-free.

It's easy to keep track of bills, too. Each month we'll list all the bills you've paid by phone on your regular checking account statement. Your receipt for each call includes the amounts and names of the merchants paid.

It's such a simple, foolproof system, it's no wonder thousands of people in Massachusetts use Pay by Phone to pay their monthly bills.

Now we'd like to pay you something to join them.

How to get your $10

It couldn't be easier.

Just list at least six merchants (department stores, utilities, credit cards, doctors, etc.) whom you pay regularly on the coupon at right.

Then bring it to any of our offices and open a checking account. If you already have a checking account, just tell us to add Pay by Phone service to it.

As soon as you pay your first bill by phone, we'll automatically deposit $10 to your account.

Sound like a good deal? Then start listing those merchants now. After all, you've got to pay your bills anyway. So why not start paying them by phone and start out $10 ahead?

Yes, I'd like to see how easy it is to pay my bills by phone. I have listed at least six merchants I'd like to be able to pay. I understand that I need pay only one merchant to qualify for a $10.00 deposit to my account.

Bus Stops To Be Moved In March

In anticipation of the redesigning of Elm square next summer, the town manager has recommended to the selectmen that two downtown bus stops be moved in early March.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark Monday night suggested that the commuter bus stop be moved from in front of Macartney's on the corner of Main and Central Streets, to in front of the municipal parking lot opposite the Bay State National Bank on Main Street.

The town would lose one parking space across from the bank with this move, but would gain it back in front of Macartney's, the manager reported.

In addition, the commuter bus stop in front of the Musgrove Building in Elm Square will be moved to in front of town hall; this stop will also serve local buses, Clark said.

This move will eliminate two parking spaces without replacing them, he added.

The manager explained that he would like to make the changes which were recommended by the Central Business District study committee — "early in the warm weather," so that townspeople will get used to the new bus stops and parking locations well before construction begins in Elm Square next summer.

Demolition Of Stowe Recognized

The state School Building Assistance Bureau (SBAB) has "finally recognized" that the Stowe and Jackson schools must be torn down in order for the Doherty School to be converted into a junior high, the town manager said last week.

The SBAB has therefore agreed to help pay for the demolition of those schools, which will cost $40,000, Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark told the school building committee last Thursday.

The town's portion of that cost will be funded out of the $11 million bond issue authorized by 1980 annual town meeting for completion of the three-part school building program.

The SBAB has resisted the idea that the demolition is a necessary part of the program, and thereby eligible for funding assistance, for the past year, Clark explained.

The schools were originally slated for demolition last summer, but those plans were delayed when the Massachusetts Historical Commission asked the town to study the historic significance of the schools and the possibility of preserving them.

The schools will not be torn down until school administration offices now housed there can be moved into temporary quarters at Draper Hall in Phillips Academy.

Census Update Progressing

Town Clerk Elden Salter reported this week that the town census, conducted by mail for the first time this year, is "proceeding exceptionally well," with a high percentage of residents returning the survey.

However, the town clerk urged those residents who have missed the Jan. 21 deadline to return their postage-paid census forms immediately.

Residents who fail to return their forms will be contacted at home by an assistant registrar — a costly step the town had hoped to avoid by mailing the brief forms to every household early last month.

Those who have not yet received a census form, or need help in completing the census, should contact the town clerk's office at town hall, Salter said.

Screening Workshop Tuesday

A parent/teacher workshop, speech and language screening for Andover's Early Childhood program will be held Tuesday, Feb. 10, from 3:30 to 5 p.m. at the West Elementary School auditorium.

Those attending will observe a child being tested by a speech and language technician and hear a discussion of the significance of preschool speech and language screening. Developmental milestones will be presented and sample speech and language activities will be discussed.

Solar Home On View

Do you want to cut down on heating costs? Want free energy?

Turn to the sun, which is exactly what the Merrimac Valley Solar Energy Association is doing.

On Sunday, Feb. 15, from 1 to 5 p.m. an Andover solar house will be on view. Built in 1978, this residence has a mix of active and passive solar techniques for warmer winters and cooler summers. Reservations for these tours may be made by contacting Mrs. Robert Drake in Andover.

The MVSEA sponsors monthly programs free and open to the public.

Choral Meeting

The Andover Choral Society will meet Tuesday, Feb. 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the Choral Room of Andover High School. Bring Mozart Requiem to prepare for spring concert.

DOUBLE GOLD AWARD

In The International Wine And Spirit Competition 1980

Wine Connoisseurs are not surprised!

Concha y Toro has just won the DOUBLE Gold award for its Cabernet Sauvignon in the 1980 International Wine and Spirit Competition.

Concha y Toro's Cabernet Sauvignon not only was a gold award winner against 765 entries from 33 countries but also was named the DOUBLE Gold winner for Cabernet Sauvignon—a best in show for 1980. Wine lovers and connoisseurs who have read the reports of America's leading wine writers are not surprised that this Chilean wine has once again won an award in international competition. Concha y Toro has won more than 25 awards in the last 16 years.

Hugh Johnson, the world's foremost international wine writer, has said of Chilean wines, "It is perhaps the greatest wine bargain anywhere". William Clifford, the American wine columnist, only recently returned from Chile wrote, "For more than a decade I have enjoyed inexpensive Concha y Toro Cabernets as well as their big, rich premium, Casillero del Diablo. Recently they have launched Marqués de Casa Concha, the oldest and finest Cabernet of all," and wine columnist, Donis Tobias, says that Concha y Toro's Cabernet Sauvignon is a superb example of the elegant wines that are the fine claret of Bordeaux.

Brodeaux traditions of growing, pruning and training the great vines of Chile and Concha y Toro.

Today, through its fine professional staff, Concha y Toro also benefits from modern day wine science originating at the University of California in Davis. Thus, Concha y Toro is a true marriage of the traditions of Bordeaux, added to the modern technological advances from California.

What does all this mean to those in the know?

Wines of equal quality, imported from France would retail for at least $15 per bottle and even a casual consideration of the various Cabernet Sauvignons compared in this competition examines wines that sell for up to $25 per bottle! OBVIOUSLY, CONCHA Y TORO 1976 CABERNET SAUVIGNON AT $3.99 PER BOTTLE WILL DISAPPEAR FROM RETAILERS' SHELVES QUICKLY. Current shipments allocated to the Massachusetts area were less than 5,000 cases, and more than half of these have already been sold.

We believe this to be a splendid moment to purchase whatever you can afford to lay away, in both Reserve and the Cabernet, while the opportunity exists.

At current retail prices, these exceptional values will assure you of great appreciation in the value of the bottles you can enjoy today and during the next five years.

Cyril Ray, President of the International Wine and Spirit Competition and Hugh Johnson, world famous wine author, made the presentation of the society's Double Gold Award to Pauline Valdivieso de Kadt, wife of Concha y Toro's agent in England.

How does Concha y Toro Cabernet Sauvignon compare with that of Bordeaux and California?

In many respects the Cabernet Sauvignon grapes grown in Chile's Maipo Valley are identical with Bordeaux and Napa Valley, California, but there are differences and these differences probably account for Concha y Toro's winning ways. Maipo Valley, the mid-section of Chile, where Concha y Toro has its vineyards, has a micro climate identical with Bordeaux, France. The soil is an ideal balance of limestone, clay and gravel, perfect for growing fine grapes. The sunny growing season ends in a dry, hot period with minimum rainfall.

At least two points of difference make for the uniqueness of the flavor and bouquet of Concha y Toro Cabernet Sauvignon grapes. Unlike the rest of the world, the root stock is still untouched by phylloxera. In the New York Times BOOK OF WINE, Terry Roberts says, "Chile has never been confronted with the vine blight known as phylloxera, which wiped out most of the European vineyards in the second half of the last century. Whereas nearly all European vines are now grafted onto disease-resistant American roots, Chile's European vines grow on their own roots. Probably because of the Andes Mountains on the east and the Pacific Ocean on the west, Chile has been protected from an invasion of phylloxera and thus can make the boast made by only a handful of European vineyards: that their vines are free phylloxera.

Actually, this is one of the few ways you may taste the difference between the grapes grown on grafted vine roots and those grown directly on the original root stock. Indeed, this is the original Cabernet Sauvignon root stock that was imported from Bordeaux to Chile before the phylloxera plague.

Another important point of difference for Concha y Toro lies in the fact that it is the fortunate recipient of Bordeaux expertise, skill and heritage brought to Chile in the time of the plague. For it was over 100 years ago that the Marqués Don Melchor de Concha y Toro brought to Chile Monsieur de Labouchère and the noble French vines which were then cultivated in the Maipo Valley. He and other French winemakers introduced the

Is this an estate bottled wine?

Concha y Toro has a 100 year history of winemaking. All grapes are grown on their own estate. All Concha y Toro wines are made of their own estate grown grapes. All Concha y Toro wines are made in their own winery on the estate. All Concha y Toro wines are estate bottled wines.

The Concha y Toro estates are the largest and best located estates in Chile. Denis Boubals, head of the French National Farming Research Bureau has said, "The central zone of Chile is one of the most outstanding examples of worldwide viticulture."

All Cabernet Sauvignon wines are barrel aged from two to four years. In the case of Concha y Toro Red Reserve wines, it is not unusual for wines to receive both barrel and bottle aging up to four years before release.

Concha y Toro has developed a strictly limited line of fine wines which includes three levels of Cabernet Sauvignon. For example, Concha y Toro Cabernet Sauvignon made exclusively of the Cabernet Sauvignon grape is a wine of complexity and longevity. This wine will age well despite the fact that it is ready to be served today. There are also Casillero del Diablo, a Reserve wine which is a big, rich premium 100% Cabernet Sauvignon aged four years in small casks and bottles, and the Marqués de Casa Concha which is their oldest and their finest Cabernet. In his book, THE WORLD ATLAS OF WINE, Hugh Johnson says, "The Cabernet is fruity, tannic, balanced and long lived. Treated like a red Bordeaux, bottled after two years and kept for another five or six, it develops into very fine wine."

School Project Bids Are Behind Schedule

Planning for the three-part secondary school building program has suffered a further delay, and the project is now scheduled to be put out for bids in mid-March — one month later than the school building committee had hoped.

However, a representative of Perley F. Gilbert Associates of Lowell, architects for the $11.72 million project, last Thursday told the committee that construction might still begin in April, as planned, and in any case would begin in June.

Committee Chairman Kenneth Gropper pointed out that the latest delay will have no impact on the scheduled September 1983 opening dates for the new Doherty Junior High and the renovated West Junior High and high school.

But the architects "can't slip any further" if construction is to be finished on schedule, he added.

The Feb. 15 bid date already represented one delay: The building committee had originally planned to put the project out for bids in late December.

Ed McMahon of Perley F. Gilbert assured the committee that the architectural firm has placed more personnel on the project, to make sure that it will be ready for bidding by March 15 at the latest.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark had asked the architects to take that step "a number of weeks ago," but was told it was unnecessary, Clark indicated. "It would have provided more breathing room in the schedule," he said.

Committee member Richard Landry outlined the new schedule as follows: The project will be opened for bidding by March 16; sub-contractors' bids will be accepted by April 3; general contractors' bids will be accepted by April 16, and bids will be awarded by May 5.

All of those dates may be moved back by one or two weeks, the manager noted.

One of Gregor Mendel's less fortunate endeavors included breeding a strain of bees that produced excellent honey, but were so ferocious they stung everybody for miles around and had to be destroyed.

Gropper emphasized that the bids must be awarded not "one day later than the first week of May."

"There is a little bit of frustration here at the slippage (behind schedule)," he said. "And there is a desire to have the project up for bids as expeditiously as humanly possible."

"But at the same time," the chairman added, "I don't think anybody on this committee wants to go out with ill-prepared or unprepared documents that will in the end cost us a great deal of money."

Some committee members expressed concern that the delay could mean the three secondary schools, all slated for new additions and some renovations, will not be ready to open their doors by Sept. 1, 1983.

"What are we doing to deal with this?" asked committeeman Paul Curley. "We're concerned with getting a school operational. Two months could be significant."

The manager replied that school administrators are still planning around a September 1983 opening date because "it wasn't realized that the delay (in starting construction) would be this long until very recently."

Donald Robb, a member of both the school building and school committees, asked the architect to prepare a revised schedule for the school department "to plan with."

But Gropper instructed the architect not to begin working on that schedule until the project is ready for bidding.

"I want the architect to spend 26 hours a day, six days a week to get those bid documents done," he said. "We have an obligation to the town."

Numerous fitness classes designed to meet the needs of the individual are being offered to high school students and adults. Participants will get into shape and stay there with weekly participation in any of the following physical education programs: "Fitness For The Unfit," is taking a new approach to physical fitness and health by staying away from the boredom created by regimentation in exercise classes. The new approach, by instructor Paul Swindlehurst, is one geared around making physical activity a pleasurable experience for young and old. Classes, especially designed for working men and women, will meet Monday and Wednesday from 5:30 to 6:15 p.m. "Noon Time Fitness," another fitness and conditioning program for working men and women will be offered Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 12:10 to 12:40 p.m. followed by an optional recreational swim. Aquacises, an exercise program conducted in the swimming pool, emphasizing total fitness, will be held Tuesday and Thursday from 8:15 to 9 a.m. or 7:45 to 8:30 p.m. This outstanding program is for swimmers and non-swimmers alike who find other forms of heart-lung exercises, such as jogging or walking, to be impossible. A Slimnastics program emphasizing rhythmic movements, flexibility, endurance and strength exercises to help you feel fit again, will be offered Tuesday and Thursday mornings from 9:15 to 10 a.m. or 1:15 to 2 p.m. Tang Soo Do Karate, a family-oriented program, strives to develop one as a person by means of mental and physical development. Instructions in self-defense sparring, forms and breaking techniques will be included in this year-round program where students may be promoted through the various belts. Classes meet Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7-9 p.m. Dance Aerobics, a vigorous exercise program especially designed for women, combines the elements of fitness and dance movements. If you find that you are bored and unchallenged by jogging or swimming laps, then come and dance. No previous dance experience is necessary. Morning classes, which meet three times per week, are held Monday, Wednesday and Fridays from 9-10 a.m. Babysitting is also available for a small fee. Evening classes, which meet twice a week, are held Tuesday and Thursdays from 8:15 to 9:15 p.m. Postpartum exercises for mothers up to six months after childbirth, will include flexibility and relaxation exercises. Bring baby along and let him/her exercise too. Yoga classes for beginners and advanced beginners will be held Tuesday and/or Thursday from 7 to 8 p.m. Adult Swim Instructions for beginners through advanced swimmers will be held Tuesday from 10:30-11:15 a.m. or 8:30-9:15 p.m., Wednesday 8:30-9:15 p.m. and Thursday from 10:30-11:15 a.m. or 8:30 to 9:15 p.m. Endurance and Aerobic Swimming, Advanced Lifesaving, Men's Informal Basketball, Volleyball and Sr. Citizen's Wednesday morning program complete the adult physical programs for the Early Spring Term. Adult special interest programs again include "Puppy Kindergarten," a course especially designed for puppies, which will cover basic and behavioral problems. Pups should be up to date on all of their vaccinations. Classes will meet Wednesdays from 6:30-7:30 p.m. A Dog Obedience course will also be held Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. for dogs six months and older. Introduction to photography, introduction to drawing, oil painting and an adult outing club are also offered with the Early Spring Term.

Land Use Survey To Be Retaken

A questionnaire on land use policies has been mailed to every household in town, inserted in the Department of Community Services spring/summer booklet.

The questionnaire is almost identical to one distributed to townspeople in 1976, with two basic changes: questions on multi-family housing have been added, and residents will be asked to assign priorities to a list of current land use issues.

Those issues are preservation of open space, preservation of historic buildings, the need for moderate income housing, the impact of new development on town utilities, and town expenditures.

Town officials hope the survey, updated by Director of Community Development and Planning Rhys Kear with the Planning Board's approval, will help them compare townspeople's current attitudes toward land use planning to their attitudes of five years ago.

Results of the survey will be compiled by computer at Merrimack College.

Postpaid envelopes will be included with each survey. In addition, postcards reminding residents to return their surveys will be sent to a random 25 percent of the households, which Kear hopes will increase the number of returns. The director said he expects 25 percent of the population to respond.

Parental Involvement Needed In School Budget Planning

The administration and school committee both made a plea Tuesday night for parents to get more involved in school budget deliberations, "before the cleaver falls."

The committee will have the last of its information-gathering sessions next week, and then will go into two months of hard work to slash the budget some $750,000, in keeping with the constraints of Prop. 2½.

Committeeman Richard Neal said Tuesday he fears that Andover parents have been lulled into complacency because no massive layoffs or program cuts have been announced here, as in surrounding communities.

Those cuts haven't been made here because of the approach the committee is taking, he said. "We're looking at all the possibilities before making any decisions."

He said he wished parents would "get more involved before the cleaver falls...because it's poised and ready."

Colleague Joseph Finn, feeling "more devastated" Tuesday night than he had at the beginning of the process, said he wished the large majority of parents would have access to the information the committee was discussing.

"The large majority doesn't believe what 2½ is going to do to the school system," he said. "It's nothing less than devastating. I don't see how the school system can do anything approaching what it has been doing."

Andover Education Association President Jim Redmond added that people have commented to him that they're not worried, because town meeting will override the budget.

They need to do their homework, Redmond said, because it can't be overridden by the town. Prop. 2½ is a state law, he said; a referendum would be required, and that can't happen for two years.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said that on Monday he had conducted what was "without a doubt" the most difficult staff meeting in his 11 years in Andover.

He said he had explained that the process of cutting the budget to adhere to 2½ would be "painfully slow," and that they might not have any hard answers for a while. He said he didn't want to cause panic among the staff, but that he had explained "in general terms" the sums of money that they will have to reduce the budget by.

Whatever issue has faced them in the past, Seifert said, the staff has addressed themselves to it.

Monday, he said, he had to tell them that the more they tried to figure this out, "the more they would lose their sanity."

"How do you explain to a staff that has performed very, very well that the numbers are going to be decimated?" he asked.

Seifert also said that if he were a parent of young children, he would get "very involved," and learn as much about the budget as he could, because "that's where the serious problems are going to lie."

Seifert blamed Gov. Edward King for promising tax relief and then looking to the communities to fulfill that promise for him. He called that "terribly irresponsible."

On the other hand, Seifert said he was proud to have Gerald Cohen as our state representative, and credited Cohen with being "sane and rational," and understanding what's going on with people.

Committeeman Donald Robb noted that the State Board of Education has taken steps to remove some state-mandated expenses, and is working for higher levels of funding for mandated programs that remain.

Rusty Dunbar of the Finance Committee added another plea for parents to start getting involved.

"I think they should be alerted that some programs may be dropped," she said.

The next committee meeting will be Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m., at West Elementary School.

Meanwhile, members of the committee will join others from the Merrimack Valley Association of School Committees to-night, when they meet with state legislators from this area—a possible 16 senators and representatives—on 2½.

Committeeman John Eaton also noted that school athletic directors from 10 area schools will be meeting this week to see if they can zero in on any sports that they might all be able to do without.

"It's all a kettle of worms," Eaton said.

Recycling Results Are Encouraging

By Virginia Cole

The first six months of Andover Recycling's fiscal year, July 1980 through December 1980, show encouraging signs. Of course, we won't be really pleased until all of you are recycling your paper and glass instead of putting it in the trash bag. It isn't too hard to recycle and this is what you will do financially for your town. Glass collection was up 1.01 tons and $308 over last year; paper was up 31.5 tons and $726.

Last year we recycled more than 80 tons a month; this year perhaps the average will hold to 85 tons each month. I hope you are remembering that it costs the town (1979-80 figures) $33 to dispose of one ton of trash. Andover Recycling disposes of recyclables at a cost of $15.80 per ton. That is a considerable savings.

Financial reasons have been on our side for some time. Conservation requires recycling. Environmental protection needs recycling. Energy savings mandate recycling.

cling. Curb side pickup of recyclables is a convenience few communities have.

Dorchester History

At the Dorchester Heights National Historic Site, Thomas Park at Telegraph Street, visitors can see the colonial revival memorial tower commemorating the British evacuation of Boston in 1776. Guided walks free on request. Daily 9 to 4. Exit 17 off Route 93, to Day Boulevard, South Boston.

Shannon Office Moves

Congressman James M. Shannon's district office in Lowell has moved to the Palmer Street Firehouse in downtown Lowell. The office had been previously located at 352 Merrimack St.

Shannon says the Firehouse is centrally located in downtown Lowell and offers accessibility to the elderly and handicapped. The new office is on the third floor of the Firehouse and easily reached by an elevator. The Firehouse will soon undergo extensive renovation with facade improvements and restoration of the large firehouse doors on the front of the structure, and Shannon says he is "very impressed with the plans of the new owner of the building to renovate the structure in compliance with the Historic Commission and the city's Division of Planning and Development."

The mailing address of the new office is 134 Middle St.

The median price of a new home has nearly tripled in the past 10 years, and the cost of owning and operating the home has more than doubled.

Telephone Reassurance Program Is Offered

Dorothy M. Winn, coordinator of Elder Affairs for the town of Andover, has announced a new volunteer service to be offered to Andover's elderly and handicapped residents.

The Andover Council on Aging is sponsoring a Telephone Reassurance Program designed to help those Andover residents over age 60 or handicapped, who are living alone and may feel anxious about the special dangers that living alone entails.

A Telephone Reassurance Program is a plan whereby daily telephone calls are made by a volunteer caller at an appointed time to check on the well-being of the elderly or handicapped person. If this person does not answer at the time decided upon, a neighbor or friend makes a house check in accordance with a pre-arranged plan. Should a medical crisis be discovered, the volunteer caller is prepared to assist by supplying critical information, such as the name of the doctor and the relatives to be notified, to the police and or fire department who would respond to such a crisis.

The idea of a telephone reassurance is not new. It began 23 years ago in Saginaw, Mich., when an elderly widow living alone was struck down by a paralyzing stroke. She spent eight days lying on the kitchen floor before her friend, Mrs. Grace Sample McClure, discovered her plight. Mrs. McClure was appalled at this tragedy and she decided that something must be done to prevent such a thing happening again. She was inspired to start the first telephone reassurance service in August, 1957. Many cities and towns all over America now operate such a plan under many different names, such as "Telephone Buddies," "Care-ring," etc.

The Andover Telephone Reassurance Program will be supervised by Gwen Smith, coordinator of the Friendly Visitor Program of Andover. Mrs. Smith is eager to have anyone who needs or wants the service to apply by telephoning the Senior Center (470-0870). Volunteers who can give a few minutes each day to make calls are also urged to get in touch with Mrs. Smith. A telephone reassurance program can mean the difference between life and death. It can also give great relief to many relatives who live out of town to know that their loved ones are under the care of a concerned community.

Gammon Heart Fund Chairman

Alexander "Sandy" Tennant, 1981 division general chairman of the American Heart Association, Northeast Massachusetts Division, announces the appointment of Mrs. Norma Gammon as chairman for Andover in the American Heart Association's Annual Campaign.

Mrs. Gammon, a resident of Abbot Street in Andover, is vice-chairman of the Andover Board of Selectmen. Active in civic affairs, she is a member of the Andover Artist Guild; the Andona Society; the League of Women Voters, and a former recipient of the Chamber of Commerce Service Award.

Mrs. Gammon will be coordinating a phoning effort to Andover's 450 Heart Sunday volunteers.

member has looked at each issue and voted the way they feel."

Abramson also had praise for Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark. "He's done an excellent job. His reorganization efforts have gone a long way toward making the town run more efficiently."

Besides his business sense, the chairman believes he has brought "a pragmatic approach to problems" to the board — a quality he has not always seen reflected in the citizenry or the press, he said.

"What's amused me the most in my three years on the board is that the emotional issues are usually not the issues of the greatest importance to the town," he observed. "Nobody gets excited about the budget — nobody writes editorials about it. But everybody gets excited over dogs and television."

Abramson has not ruled out the possibility of his future involvement in town affairs, "if time permits. I would serve on special committees. I'd be glad to participate again, if time allows."

He also plans to make himself available to the board of selectmen for help with working toward this year's annual town meeting, scheduled for late May and early June. "I wouldn't just walk away from it," he explained.

"I'm glad I did it. I like the town."

Selectmen Approve Licenses

During a regular meeting at town hall last week, the selectmen granted the following licenses:

Abdul M. Adam of Westwood was granted a one-day auctioneer's license for the sale of oriental rugs from 1 to 5 p.m., Saturday, Jan. 31, at the Sheraton-Rolling Green.

Herman Hurwitz of Newton Center was granted a one-day auctioneer's license for the sale of oriental rugs at the Sheraton-Rolling Green from 1 to 5 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 1.

Joel Shapiro of Burlington was also granted a license for the sale of oriental rugs at the same location from 7 to 10 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 13.

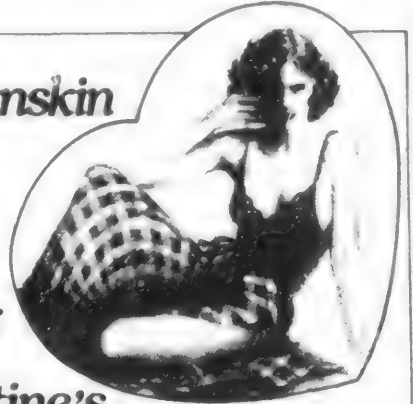

And the Christian Formation Center, River Road, was granted a one-day all alcoholic beverage license for a wedding reception to be held from 1 to 9 p.m., Saturday, Feb. 14.

It's easier to pay your bills
by phone.

And we'll give you 10 bills
to prove it.

That's right, $10.

Just for paying one of your bills by phone. That's how convinced we are that you'll find Pay by Phone easier, faster and safer than paying your bills any other way.

In addition, you'll save the cost of a postage stamp on each bill you'd normally pay by mail. Plus all that time you don't have to spend writing and mailing checks. What's more you can pay one bill or many with the same phone call. And that call is toll free.

It's easy to keep track of bills, too. Each month we'll list all the bills you've paid by phone on your regular checking account statement. Your receipt for each call includes the amounts and names of the merchants paid. It's such a simple, foolproof system, it's no wonder thousands of people in Massachusetts use Pay by Phone to pay their monthly bills. Now we'd like to pay you something to join them.

How to get your 10 bills.

It couldn't be easier. Just list at least six merchants (department stores, utilities, credit cards, doctors, etc.) whom you pay regularly on the coupon. Then bring it to any of our offices and open a checking account. If you already have a checking account, just tell us to add Pay by Phone service to it. As soon as you Pay your first bill by phone, we'll automatically deposit $10 to your account.

Sound like a good idea? Then start listing those merchants now. After all, you've got to pay those bills anyway. So why not start paying them by phone and start out $10 ahead.

Yes, I'd like to see how easy it is to pay my bills by phone. I have listed at least six merchants. I'd like to be able to pay. I understand that I need pay only one merchant to qualify for a $10 deposit to my account.

Concert Dance Co. of Boston

Dance Company To Perform

On Feb. 9, the Concert Dance Co. of Boston will give performances for elementary school children at 9:30 a.m. at East Jr. High auditorium; 10:45 a.m. at West Jr. High auditorium.

"You Call That Dancin'" are collections and recollections of highly spirited dancers sharing their sometimes funny, sometimes touching beginnings—from their early years as baton twirlers, ballerinas and tap dancers—to the challenges of being professional dancers today. Through this format the audience will delight in many facets of the dance experience.

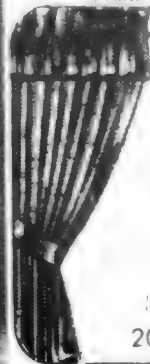

The music swings from "Sweet Georgia Brown" and Sousa marches to Beethoven and Telemann—soft shoe, ballet, disco and modern dance all become part of "You Call That Dancin,'" a potpourri of musical and visual entertainment.

Parents of students who attend these performances are invited to attend also.

The performances are sponsored by the Gould-Modicon Corp. of Andover.

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 5, 1981

By Joanne Saalfrank and Cheryl Scammell

This has been a busy week here at East as the eighth grade students meet with their parents and the guidance counsellors to select their courses for their freshman year. At the same time, the ninth graders are choosing the courses they will be taking at the high school next year.

The student council has planned many events for February including a tag day and the Muppet Movie which will be shown free to all students during the school day.

We are very proud of the girls' basketball team this year. Last Friday they played against Chelmsford Parker which brings their record to 5-2. Co-captain Nicole Marcella led the scoring. The eighth grade boys' basketball team has a record of 4-4 with eight games left to play. The two high scorers are Tom Lutz with an average of 18 points a game and Dan Carignan with 12 points.

We are all looking forward to enjoying the annual school play this Friday and Saturday night. "Godspell" with Chris Marcella in the starring role will be presented starting at 8 p.m. in the auditorium at East. During the past week the cast and chorus toured the elementary schools giving excerpts from the play. The "reviews" were excellent and we urge everyone in Andover not to miss "Godspell" here at East this weekend!

WESTern Roundup

By Mary Driscoll and Kathy Mulvey

On Tuesday, Jan 27, the WJH girls' basketball team battled Lawrence. They came away with their first win of the season by a 29-20 score. Mary Oppel chipped in 10 points to lead the scoring. Three days later, the team was defeated by Methuen, 28-17, with Judy MacDonald playing extremely well.

Last Friday, West and Methuen met on the basketball court when the freshmen team earned the 66-36 victory. The whole team played especially well with Bill Vickers, Mark Nardone, and Mike Gibson placing the majority of the points on the scoreboard for West.

Preparations for this year's school play are in their final days of countdown for the first performance of "Big Rock at Candy's Mountain" scheduled for the night of Feb. 5. The second show will be on Friday, Feb. 6.

A special assembly was held on Jan. 29, the official day of thanksgiving for the return of the 52 American hostages. The ceremony included heartwarming speeches by principal William Hart, Mr. Dewie, and student council president Maura King. The West Side Singers added to the spirit with their chorus of "Tie A Yellow Ribbon Round The Old Oak Tree" while the band struck up some patriotic tunes. The eight Americans who lost their lives in the attempt to rescue our hostages were also honored. The American patriotism and spirit encountered during this event will always be remembered by all.

Aid Association Plans Monte Carlo Night

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 5, 1981

The dice will roll and the wheels will spin on Feb. 13 when the Aid Association of the Lawrence General Hospital throws open the doors of the Boston University Conference Center for their Monte Carlo Night. The gala will begin at 8 p.m.

The admission price includes snacks, coffee, sandwiches and starter "play money." The play money used at the tables can be purchased during the evening to augment wins or replenish losses.

There will be nibbles for enthusiastic gamblers during the evening with a cash bar available. Toward the close of the night, coffee and sandwiches will be provided to winners and losers alike.

The tables will be staffed by area leaders including doctors, employees and administration from the hospital. Husbands of Aid Association Board members will also assist.

Two added highlights of the evening will be awarding a trip to Las Vegas and an auction. The tickets will be sold during the evening to those who did not receive them in the mail. Between now and Feb. 13, they can be purchased at the Hospitality Shop or Volunteer Office.

The auction will include gifts donated by local businessmen of assorted items, such as small appliances, furniture and gift certificates.

The Aid Association has earmarked the proceeds from the evening to two projects. One, the construction of an employees' lounge which is desperately needed, and two, air conditioning for Lamprey 3 and Stevens 5. These projects would benefit patients, employees, staff and visitors according to Barbara DiAdamo, Monte Carlo chairman. She is being assisted by Sue Daly, Stella McClintock, Sue Morton and Liza Webster.

Amblyopia Training For Andona

The Andona Society will hold an Amblyopia training session for members on Monday, Feb. 9, 7:30 p.m., at the Andover North Andover Y.M.C.A.

Volunteers will be prepared for the vision screening of pre-school children to be held in conjunction with the annual early childhood screening by the Andover school system.

"Before We Are Six," a film on Amblyopia from the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Blindness, will also be shown. Amblyopia, which is commonly referred to as lazy eye, is a condition of reduced or dim vision in an eye which appears to be normal. If undetected, a child often suffers permanent damage to his eyesight. It can be corrected if discovered early enough.

The Amblyopia Committee includes Mrs. Larry Jones, Mrs. Allen Bernard, Mrs. Leonard Shepard, Mrs. Ken DeBenedictis and Mrs. Howard Gilbert.

Sorority Aiding Hospital

Chronic care patients at Tewksbury State Hospital are benefiting as a result of the service project of Andover's Preceptor Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi International Sorority.

For the third year, members of Preceptor Zeta will donate Easter baskets filled with homemade candies to the elderly men and women in the residential care facility. At Christmas time, they donated a stereo and filled Christmas stockings with candies and small gifts specifically for use in the hospital. An ongoing project has been the collection and distribution of new and used men's and women's cardigan sweaters for use during the cold winter months.

In addition to their service project for Tewksbury State Hospital, Preceptor Zeta members provided Christmas dinner with all the fixings and gifts for the children to a needy family in the area.

Co-chairmen of service are Mrs. Henry Becker and Mrs. Richard Clukey, and honorary chairman, Mrs. Robert Pelrine, president.

JOY US

Hi! I'm Laurie. Have you ever noticed those inches creeping up on you? Well, you don't until it's too late. You look in the mirror, hold your breath & say, "Well, I'll diet tomorrow."

Tomorrow comes and goes & before you know it...Bang! You go shopping & the size 7 rack turns into 11's. I stopped feeling sorry for myself & decided to do something about it. I then went to Joy. They gave me the incentive I needed. In a short time I was back in my 7's, not only looking but feeling great.

Watching yourself improve is great but even better when people notice.

Thank You,
Laurie Boucher

Sen. Pollard To Address NOW Group

Senator Sharon M. Pollard, D-Methuen, will speak at the Lawrence YWCA, Wednesday, Feb. 11, at 7:30 p.m. on legislation affecting women which has been filed on Beacon Hill.

She is also expected to talk on the proposed Human Life Amendment which would outlaw abortion and some forms of birth control.

Sen. Pollard's talk, rescheduled from last month when she was invited to a reception at the Carter White House, is sponsored by the Greater Lawrence Chapter of the National Organization for Women. The public is invited.

Filling in for Sen. Pollard at NOW's January meeting was Senator Patricia McGovern, D-Lawrence, who spoke on her early experiences representing Lawrence, Andover, Billerica and Tewksbury in the State House.

At a recent chapter meeting held in the home of Lawrence atty. Marcia D. Brockelman, head of Greater Lawrence NOW, plans were made to publish a directory of local business and professional women Cynthia Melnikas of Andover, Holly Buttner of Lawrence, and Susan Knowles of North Andover will coordinate this effort.

Psychologist Rosemary Duffy of Lawrence will head a new committee aimed at acquainting people with the impact of the proposed Human Life Amendment on women. The amendment would outlaw abortion and some forms of birth control.

Efforts at securing passage of the Equal Rights Amendment will also continue in the Greater Lawrence Chapter through letter writing and the boycotting of unrated states.

Patricia Lynch of North Andover will head a new Media Committee to monitor print and television news coverage and advertising which is offensive to women.

A new round of feminist consciousness-raising sessions is expected to get underway soon, including a proposed teenage session for high school age women.

Persons interested in obtaining more information about NOW or in joining the local chapter, may call Frances Donovan, Surry Lane, North Andover.

Annual Antique Show Is Set For 'Vale

23 THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 5, 1981

The 13th Annual Andover Ballard Vale Antiques Exhibit and Sale, sponsored by The Women's Guild of the Ballard Vale United Church, will be held at the church, corner Clark Road and Hall Avenue (Route 93, Exit 16, Dascomb Road, east to Clark Road), Feb. 20-21, Friday, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., and Saturday, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The show is considered by buyers and exhibitors alike to be one of the outstanding antiques events of the early spring season, and this year the hall will once again come alive with the elegance and charm of "Yesteryear." Exhibitors from the Andover areas as well as shops from other sections of New England, will display and offer for sale a choice array of antiques including formal and country furniture, silver, antique jewelry, glass, china, lamps, primitives, orientals, clocks, quilts, linens, rugs, woodenware, pewter, brass, copper, early tools and toys, paintings, and many other hard-to-find heirlooms and unusual treasures.

Despite tighter budgets, homemakers, collectors and investors are finding that antiques are a sound investment, holding their value while offering pleasure and pride to their owners as they appreciate in value.

There will be a "Home Cooking Country Kitchen" offering homemade luncheons, chowders, desserts and delicious pies that the ladies of the Women's Guild are famous for. Everyone is cordially invited to come, browse, buy, and to have a wonderful time. Ample free parking facilities will be available. Tickets will be sold at the door, and children under 12 will be admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

Louise M. Mears of Andover will be antiques show chairwoman, and Loring C. Kasperson, Centre Chimney, Hollis, N.H., will be the show director.

Tickets will be available for students to purchase in school on Monday and Tuesday, Feb. 9 and 10.

Gardeners To Meet

Selectmen Set Priorities

The selectmen began tackling the fiscal year 1982 budget Monday night, taking their first close look at the town manager's list of special articles and setting priorities on the monetary articles.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark's recommended budget includes $400,000 for special articles, while his list of possible articles totals an estimated $800,000. In pre-Proposition 2½ years, the budget for special articles has totalled $800,000 to $1 million.

The board by consensus deemed three special articles as necessities, placing them at the top of their list: replacing a pump at the Riverina Road pumping station, at a cost of $45,000; continuing the Weebus service for elderly and handicapped citizens, $20,000; and providing gas service for the new Doherty Junior High, at $48,000 to $62,000.

The necessity for the new pump, to be used as a backup should one of the station's two pumps fail, has become more obvious recently, as one pump is currently undergoing repairs, leaving the town without an emergency backup.

Assigned a high priority — one step below necessity status — were three more special articles: a new fire truck, $75,000; painting town hall and the Essex Street theatre building, $12,000; and installing a two-fuel heating system at the new Doherty Junior High, $25,000.

The first $45,000 for the fire truck was funded at last year's annual town meeting, while the installation of gas heat at the Doherty with oil as a backup would make the school suitable for use as an emergency shelter.

The selectmen considered three other articles to be "medium" priorities: improvements to Pump's Pond, $30,000; funding the second year of the town pension system, $100,000, and — a "medium to low" priority — improvements to buildings in Spring Grove Cemetery, $100,000.

While Chairman James Abramson said he couldn't "see spending $30,000" on Pump's Pond, Selectman Norma Gammon argued, "If we have an area, why don't we keep it up? It's the same thing as painting town hall — we should take care of what we have right now."

Gammon and Abramson also found themselves in disagreement over the importance of improvements to Recreation Park, at a cost of $60,000. Calling it a low priority item, the chairman said, "Under Proposition 2½, it's just not important."

But Gammon, along with Selectman Jerry Silverman, gave the Rec Park improvements a high priority, noting that insurance funds and funds from the pending sale of the Cardinal Cushing Gym were intended to help pay for those improvements. Clark said the insurance funds have gone into the free cash account and are "gone."

Selectmen Edward Harris gave a medium priority to the Rec Park work; Susan Poore was absent.

The remaining monetary special articles were assigned low priorities, including improvements to the public works service garage at $75,000, acquiring the development rights to Turner Farm at an estimated $50,000, a land fill study at an estimated $35,000, acquiring a portion of Essex Street that now belongs to the MBTA at an estimated $5,000, work on the Shawsheen playing fields at an estimated $5,000, and building over-sized boilers in the converted Doherty school, $100,000.

The manager explained that over-sized boilers at Doherty would be large enough to serve the two wings of East Junior High, which may be renovated and used by the town in the future.

But Abramson, saying he was "totally opposed" to that article, said, "It's crazy to spend $100,000 on something when we have no idea if we will ever use that building or not."

Kennedy Found Innocent

Kevin Kennedy, 20, was found innocent of selling liquor to a minor in Haverhill District Court on Dec. 22 by Judge Norman Brisson.

Kennedy was the clerk accused of selling alcohol to a minor at McCracken's Liquors, 4 Poore St., Andover, which led to the Andover selectmen suspending the license for 20 days.

The youth appealed a November Lawrence District Court decision in which he was fined $1,000. He has denied having sold liquor to the minor involved in the case.

Selectmen, sitting as the licensing board, suspended the license for the June 30 alleged offense. Court appeals and a subsequent hearing before the state Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission resulted in the local decision being upheld, although the store remained in business pending the outcome of the hearings.

Selectmen will now set the date of the suspension, probably at their meeting next Monday night.

New Gas Line Need Costs School Project At Least $62,000 More

Need For Another Lieutenant Told

Many townspeople are concerned that there are not enough police officers patrolling Andover's streets, especially at night, but Police Chief James Johnson is more concerned about the current lack of supervision for officers already on the street.

"I don't believe putting more manpower on the street at the present time is the answer," the police chief told the selectmen Monday night during a discussion of the police department budget. "We are lacking adequate supervision on all shifts. The midnight shift is unsupervised because the sergeant is tied to the desk.

"We should have supervision around the clock," Johnson said. "I need another lieutenant."

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark's budget recommendation includes funds for one captain and one other position, funded at the patrolman's level. Both positions are now vacant; however, another vacancy will be left unfilled.

The manager had previously planned to leave all three positions vacant, bringing the department down to the staffing level that existed before 1980 annual town meeting voted to fund three new positions. (Those positions were filled, but other officers subsequently retired.)

But although the manager has decided to fund two positions, in response to citizens' and the selectmen's concern for public safety, he and the police chief do not entirely agree on how those funds should be spent, Clark said.

Johnson said he would prefer to hire a lieutenant, rather than another patrolman, for more supervision of patrolmen now on duty. Increased supervision would encourage "maximum efficiency from the men on the street," he told the selectmen.

A lieutenant's salary would be approximately $8,000 more than the manager has budgeted for a patrolman, he indicated.

Johnson explained that the department now employs one supervisor for every 5.2 officers; during an informal survey of other town departments, he found that most departments average one supervisor for every 3.5 employees, he said.

The addition of a lieutenant would give the police department an organizational structure that would serve its needs for 15 to 20 years, Johnson said.

"This is the only way we're going to be able to go," he commented. "If you offered me added personnel at the lower echelons, I would refuse them at the present time."

Ideally, a sergeant and a lieutenant would be available on every shift, Johnson said. With an additional lieutenant, the night shift sergeant would be out on the street, answering calls as well as supervising patrolmen.

The selectmen indicated some support for Johnson's request. "Theoretically, I'm in favor of it," said Chairman James Abramson. "Either we'll have to add $8,000 to the budget, or we'll have to cut $8,000 elsewhere."

The manager pointed out that he may

Heating the converted Doherty Junior High School with gas is going to cost as much as $62,000 more than the school building committee had expected when they made that decision, the committee learned last Thursday.

But, reluctant to ask 1981 town meeting to amend the $11 million bond issue approved by last year's town meeting, the committee voted instead to ask voters to approve a separate bond issue for the unexpected cost, estimated at $48,000 to $62,000.

The gas main will be one of three parts in the new bond issue request, all concerning the Doherty heating system and totaling an estimated $173,000 to $187,000.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark told the committee that Bay State Gas Company recently informed Project Manager William Mansell the company will have to build a new gas transmission line from Merrimack College to the center of Andover in order to service Doherty.

The town must pay for part of that construction, Clark explained, and the state School Building Assistance Bureau (SBAB) will not help pay for the gas line because it is not on the school site. The SBAB is funding 50 percent of most parts of the building project.

The building committee voted several weeks ago to heat Doherty with gas, with the understanding that existing gas mains in the area were large enough to serve the school.

Asked why the gas company did not inform the town sooner that a new main would be needed, Project Manager Mansell replied, "That's just the devious way they operate."

Committee members agreed with the manager that "despite recent appearances, gas heat still appears to be the soundest decision," because it is likely to be less expensive and "relatively" more available than other fuels in future years.

Clark suggested the committee ask the annual 1981 town meeting to amend the $11 million bond issue approved by last year's town meeting to include the cost of the new gas main.

But the committee was reluctant to return to town meeting for an amendment to the bond issue, perhaps mindful of their oft-repeated promise that last year's $11 million appropriation is "carved in concrete."

"We have made the decision to go with gas," Committee Chairman Kenneth Gropper told the manager, "but nobody on this committee wants to reopen the bond issue."

Gropper recommended instead that town meeting be asked to approve a new bond issue to fund the gas main, and the committee seemed to prefer that alternative.

However, in the event that town meeting votes against funding the gas main, the committee voted to "absorb" the $48,000 to $62,000 cost into the building program's existing $11 million bond issue.

This is not a decision the town probably should be making," committee member Paul Curley suggested. "Let's decide it here, and let's pay for it here. We can take the $62,000 out of the equipment budget. We have to get the building heated."

"It doesn't matter where the money comes from," added Richard Landry. "We have to heat the school."

After the committee voted in favor of Curley's suggestion, the manager said their action amounted to "cutting down the program further. The equipment budget — properly equipping the school — is very important."

"I understand what you've done," Clark told the committee, "but we've had a few surprises. I would have hoped that town meeting could understand that we've made the best decisions we could."

But Curley explained that the vote "doesn't preclude us from going back to town meeting" for additional appropriations in the future if necessary.

The manager suggested that two additional aspects of the Doherty heating system could also be presented as part of the new bond issue for town meeting approval: an over-sized heating system, and a dual-fuel system.

If over-sized boilers and transmission lines are installed at Doherty, at an estimated cost of $100,000, they could serve the east and west wings of East Junior High in the future. Those wings are not part of the Doherty renovation project, but town meeting last year appropriated funds to study possible reuse of the wings. The town manager has said he would like to move all town and school offices into the wings.

Although the over-sized heating system would serve town and not school needs, the building committee recently voted to include it in the building program because the SBAB would share the cost, resulting in a savings to the town.

But after learning of the cost of the new gas main, the committee last week voted

A Serious Oversight

As if the school building committee didn't have enough work in overseeing the planning and construction of the total school project, it now must wrestle with the problem of an added expense.

At its meeting last week it was found that the town will have to come up with between $48,000 and $62,000 for installation of a gas main to provide gas heat for the new junior high school.

At the moment, there is question whether to absorb the cost within the total bond issue of $11 million, or to ask town meeting for the additional funds.

The matter of how the gas main installation is to be paid for is, of course, an important decision. It represents an added cost to the total school project, which is to convert Doherty school into a junior high, provide an auditorium and additional classrooms at the high school and build a media center and improved classrooms at West Junior high.

The question at the moment is how the project got to this stage before someone realized the larger utility main would be required to heat the new building?

The building committee members can hardly be held responsible. It was their duty simply to make a determination of what type of fuel would be used to heat the building. Based on the advice provided them, gas heat was decided upon.

Planning went forward, based on that decision.

Now with bidding about to begin on the project, the committee is faced with the prospect of the added cost.

Certainly the gas company, which is to supply the building, must have been aware that the present mains were insufficient to supply the new structure. Yet it was not until recently that this came to light.

Architects, in their planning, must have assumed that the supply was sufficient to meet the building needs, or should have advised the committee of the possibility of the added expense.

Basically, somewhere along the line, someone goofed, and it is going to prove costly.

It is hardly a minor expense to absorb.

The total project has been accorded a tight budget by the Andover voters, with a pledge from the committee they wouldn't be back for more funds.

We'd suggest an exploration of some negotiation with the utility company. Assuredly they are willing to pass the construction costs of the larger transmission line along to the town for the fuel they will be supplying to the school for many years. But, apparently the utility was either unwilling to forecast the problem to the town beforehand, or was unaware of the problem until recently.

It would be nice, just for once, to see some concerted effort at resolving a problem of this nature through some negotiation and discussion, rather than just passing the cost of a costly oversight on to the taxpayers of a community.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — February 1906

All persons wishing to join the Abbott Village Coal society for the last half year must do so by next Friday evening, February 9. Thomas David, secretary for the society, will receive the names.

Two special electric cars were required to convey the large party of local people from Lawrence to this town after the concert and ball given in honor of the birth of Robert Burns, by the Scotch societies last Friday evening.

At half past seven this morning the fire department was called to extinguish a blaze on the roof of the house owned by Michael Stack on Pearson Street near the Boston and Maine station, the alarm being pulled in on box 56 situated in Abbott Village. The blaze was a slight one and was easily put out with a few pails of water before any damage was done. It is thought that the fire started by a spark from a passing locomotive.

An expert accountant has been at work this week examining the books of the various departments of the town to see if there can be any improvements or alterations made which will simplify the methods now used in the town bookkeeping.

At a recent meeting of the Punchard Athletic Association it was voted to withdraw from the Middlesex League. The school has been a member of the league since its formation and it is generally regretted that it should withdraw at this time.

Miss Jessie Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Young, was pleasantly surprised by a number of her young friends at her home on Summer Street last evening when she was presented with an umbrella.

50 Years Ago — February 1931

The sum of $10,000 to serve the double purpose of highway maintenance and unemployment relief was appropriated at a special town meeting held last Friday evening. The money will be spent under the direction of the board of Public Works cooperating with the board of Public Welfare. It is planned to do work on Lupine road, Argilla road, Abbot street and Red Spring Road.

Members of the Cormey family on Tewksbury street, Ballardvale, were awakened by smoke about 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning. They rushed to the cellar and hurled water and ashes on a lively blaze until the arrival of the fire department. Chief Emerson of the Andover fire department found that spontaneous combustion caused the flames to ignite among oily rags and rubbish.

The Andover-Reading highway reported to be in a dangerous condition Monday morning due to the coat of ice which had formed on its surface was responsible for the occurrence of several minor collisions during the day. Four men were conveyed to the general hospital in the Andover fire department ambulance at 8:30 a.m., as the result of a collision between a Whippet touring car and a Chevrolet coupe on South Main Street.

Settlement in the case of Jeremiah Donovan and Michael Lonergan, both residents of Pearson street, scheduled to be heard in superior court Monday, was effected before the case came to court. The case arose between the neighbors when hens, said to be owned by Donovan, were alleged to have damaged property belonging to Lonergan. Stipulation was made in the agreement that the plaintiff's hens are not to be allowed on Lonergan's property in the future.

If the school committee will not hold open meetings the least it can do in the matter of publicity is to give the citizens full information as to what transpired at its closed sessions.

25 Years Ago — February 1956

A brief but angry meeting Monday night between the planning board and representatives of the Realty Construction company brought a threat of court action against the town. Atty. Albert A. Sartorelli told the board his firm would "under no circumstances ever accept" rezoning of at least two parcels of land off Elm street. His statement came after Chairman Eugene A. Bernadin, Jr., told the Realty representatives that the board intends to continue in its policy of requesting rezoning in the area to a larger lot size. Articles spelling out the charges are included in the town warrant.

A Colt automatic with 12 rounds of ammunition was stolen from Michael Jay's on Main street last weekend, according to a report at the police station. Also taken during the break was $81 from an open register, costume jewelry and a lady's watch, according to Chief David Nicoll.

An across-the-board $6 weekly pay raise for town employees could cost the town $24,480 in 1956 and a larger amount in 1957. Based only on a 40-weeks period after town meeting, the proposed increases would affect 102 men and women. In 1957, the raise would be figured on 52 weeks.

The planning board has approved a subdivision off Central street belonging to Lincoln Giles. Oral application of the area for septic tanks was given the board by Dr. William V. Emmons, head of the board of health. The board of public works, however, disapproved the development on the grounds that a public sewer system should be entered rather than septic tanks.

A public testimonial to applaud the long years of duty and faithful public service of Police Officer John Devermond will be held Feb. 27 at the country club at 7 p.m. Jack, who retired Feb. 1, served the town for 33 years as a member of the police department.

10 Years Ago — February 1971

An apartment complex on Post Office Avenue may become housing for the elderly. The town is negotiating to purchase the apartment structure as additional accommodations for the senior citizens. Theodore Meinett, chairman of the Andover Housing Authority, says the state engineer and appraiser have already inspected the building which has 25 apartments. The Andover Housing Authority has 39 applications for elderly housing.

The high school has brought the problems of increased absenteeism, tardiness and class-cutting, some indiscreet boy-girl behavior in school, and student drinking problems home to parents. The administration outlined the problems to all parents in a letter last week, and asked them to share responsibility in solving them.

The trustees of Phillips Academy expressed confidence in the business management of the school Wednesday by voting to keep the tuition at its present level though the academic year of 1971-72. Tuition is now $2,700 for boarders and $1,900 for day students.

Dr. Lawrence S. Spiegel, 76 Holt Road, recently returned from a visit to an Indian Reservation in north Idaho. The Nez Perce tribe, famous for its role in the Lewis-Clark expeditions, requested assistance for establishing an industrial program on the Lapwai Reservation. As an agricultural and industrial development specialist, Dr. Spiegel has had considerable experience with the utilization of Indian and overseas resources.

Ali Sadeghpour, an authority on oriental rugs, artist and rug dealer, will speak to the Art Department of the November Club when they meet on Monday at the November Club, Locke Street. Sadeghpour was born and reared in Teheran, Iran, where his father was a rug merchant.

JACK ANDERSON AND JOE SPEAR

SPECIAL WEEKLY

Secret report on Brezhnev's healthBy Jack Anderson and Joe Spear

WASHINGTON -- President Ronald Reagan will soon receive from the Central Intelligence Agency a secret profile of his chief adversary, Soviet leader Leonid Brezhnev. The Kremlin boss is now 74 years old and is plagued with poor health.

The CIA assessment states that "Brezhnev's major health problems are cardiovascular. He has both hypertension and arteriosclerotic heart disease. He probably has a pacemaker."

He is inclined to take too much medication, which alters his already moody personality. As the CIA puts it:

"Brezhnev has been described at times as depressed and at other times as alert, energetic and animated. He has long been prone to great mood swings

"But there is no evidence that his intellectual ability has been significantly affected by these emotional problems and no sign of a lessening of his judgment or contact with reality.

"Still, on several occasions, he has been described as unable to concentrate, inattentive and fatigued. (This could) reflect the depletion of his limited physical reserves or the effects of excessive medication. But they could also be symptoms of depression."

The Kremlin czar also suffers "periodically intense facial pain," which is diagnosed by the CIA's medical experts as "trigeminal nerve pain." Continues the secret report:

"This probably explains some of Brezhnev's unusual behavior -- his seemingly unwarranted dissatisfaction with his dental care, the frequent rubbing of his jaw, excessive salivation and abrupt disappearance from public view." Brezhnev has tried every possible treatment, including acupuncture, to relieve the facial pain.

Will these health problems finally force the aging Soviet leader to retire? The CIA's top secret opinion: "Brezhnev has so far made no move to establish a successor, and most present candidates lack a good claim to his mantle."

Sometimes, when he is depressed, he talks about calling it quits. His younger brother recently hinted that the Soviet strongman may retire. But the CIA checked out the report and submitted this evaluation:

The brother's statement "may have accurately reflected Brezhnev's outlook ... during one of his 'down' periods. But later clandestine reporting and Brezhnev's more recent public behavior suggests he now means to stay on. Clearly, Brezhnev has periods of elation and depression, and his intentions may vary as his moods swing."

Concludes the CIA:

"There are able men already on the politburo, as well as others waiting on the threshold. None of them has established a special claim to consideration as a contender for the position at the top. If the Soviets wish to achieve the first smooth succession in their history, serious collective planning will have to begin soon. There is no sign of such planning."

POOR GEORGE -- George Bush wanted to be president, but he had to settle for the vice presidency. One of the few prerogatives he could look forward to was the redecoration of his official residence. Now he has discovered that even this small privilege has been partially pre-empted by his predecessor.

The departing vice president, Walter Mondale, ordered thousands of dollars worth of furnishings last fall for the stately vice presidential residence on the grounds of the Naval Observatory. He also purchased some new furnishings for his White House office. Most of the orders were placed in October. Did Mondale seriously think he was going to be around to use the new furnishings for another four years? Evidently so.

New carpeting worth $1,600 was installed in late September. Then some new wallpaper went up, and a chair was reupholstered.

The spending continued even after the voters had made Mondale a lame duck vice president. An order for $495 worth of new drapery material was dated Nov. 6. A new, custom-built couch costing nearly $1,500 was sent to the vice presidential mansion on Nov. 21.

Mondale's spokesman insisted that the redecorating splurge had nothing to do with the election. He added that only standardized, low-cost furnishings were ordered.

But this last-minute refurbishing led to a quiet inquiry by federal sleuths. The probe stopped short of an official investigation.

The Bushes may not like the furnishings Mondale picked out for them. But the new administration is dedicated to cutting the cost of government. So the new vice president can hardly go out and spend thousands of dollars to redo the decor he inherited from the Mondales.

POTENTIAL DEFECTOR? -- One of the Kremlin's most celebrated allies -- Cuban strongman Fidel Castro -- has confided some shocking news to intimates. He would like to defect from the Soviet bloc. But Castro admitted it may be too late to cut his Russian ties. He is completely dependent on the Soviet Union, which pours $10 million a day into Cuba.

DOLLAR PATROL -- David Stockman, the new director of the Office of Management and Budget, plans to form a unit of auditors who will make surprise visits on government agencies to root out wasteful spending programs. The fiscal marauders will be called the "dollar patrol."

Thirty Andover skiers in the 8 to 13 year old categories will be eligible to race in the quest for the team championships.

Racers were selected based on their performances during the regular season. The championship race will find Andover competing against the best ski racers from Bradford, Amesbury, Concord, Dover/Sherborn, Framingham, Lincoln, Merrimack Valley, Sudbury and Waltham in what promises to be an exciting and close contest.

All who are eligible to participate in the championships will be notified by telephone and will continue to attend snow practices to be held on Tuesday evenings at the Bradford Ski Area from 6-8 p.m. Practices will be open to all skiers, but concentration will be on the championship team. In the event of poor hill conditions, skiers will be contacted.

The championship race will begin promptly at 9 a.m. with registration starting at 8 a.m. All racers are urged to be at the hill as early as possible so that they may register, pick up their bibs and have an opportunity to study the course.

Andover Runners Meet Best

By Kevin Canavan

Andover High's track team met Chelmsford last Monday at the cage. Chelmsford was very hot, after getting some outstanding performances at the State Coaches' meet at Harvard. The all-around depth of Chelmsford was too much for Andover. The final score, 51-33, represents a great effort by the Andover runners who were only nine points from victory.

Andover's Steve Jackson started off the meet very well, getting a 6.8 second place in the hurdles. Mike Sherman tied for second in the dash, losing to one of the state's top competitors. In the 300 yard dash, Glenn McIntyre and Jeff Gutermann ran against the top 300 yarder in the state, John Butler, and got second and third. Butler ran the equivalent to the fifth fastest time in the nation (according to last year's time) at Harvard. Andover's first win was in the 600. Kevin Canavan won while Tim Lacourse got third. Steve Smith followed with a win over another of Chelmsford state-class competitors in the 1000. Scott Elliot got third. Mark Robichaud, in the shotput, and Joe Keefe, in the high jump, took thirds for Andover. The mile relay team of Gutermann, Keefe, Greg Batten, and Dan Boland won in 3:56.8.

Andover lost 45-41 to Billerica this Monday. It was very close. Andover had 17 runners place; Billerica only had 11 runners place. However, Billerica got more first and seconds. Andover got every third place except one. Andover continues to impress with the young team, but without getting the breaks necessary to win meets, have won only one meet.

Andover top hurdlers, Greg Batten and Steve Jackson, ran well, but placed second and third. Jeff Gutermann won decisively in dash, as Mike Sherman took third. Carl Schwind ran to a second place finish in the dash. Tim Grams and Glen McIntyre both ran well, only to chase a Billerica runner in the 300. The 600 was the same story, as Kevin Canavan and Tim Lacourse took second and third. Steve Smith ran an excellent race in the 1000. He beat the younger half of the famous Dangora's. Smith's time of 2:23.0 was especially good in the cage. Smith also tied for third in the high jump with Joe Keefe. Paul Oskar took second for Andover. Scott Elliot remained consistent, taking third in the 1000. Andover swept the shot-put as Mark Robichaud, Ted Gorrie and Peter Callahan all surpassed Billerica weightmen. In the mile, Bob Foley finished third, to Billerica's best distance runner, Dunlam. Going into the relay, Andover was ahead by one point. Our relay team ran outstandingly with a time of 3:46.5. Unfortunately, Billerica's fine anchorman, Ron Canterino, ran incredibly to bring Billerica to victory. Gutermann, Smith Canavan and Lacourse all performed well.

Andover has two meets left. The record now is 1-4. The team is starting to mature and by spring, should be very competitive. Coach Dick Bourdelaise, Coach Bob Welch and their assistants deserve a lot of credit for their perseverance and dedication.

Indian Ridge Country Club 3 North Andover Supply 2

Indian Ridge Country Club rallied from a two goal deficit to defeat North Andover Supply 3-2 Sunday at Brooks School. North Andover Supply took advantage of two defensive errors to jump to a quick 2-0 lead. Tom Sheehan picked up a loose puck in front of the net and passed it to Mike Alden who scored to make it 1-0 North Andover. Less than a minute later Paul MacDonald took the puck off the face-off and walked in untouched to make 2-0 North Andover Supply. Late in the first period Bobby Smith sent James Marocco in alone to bring Indian Ridge within one after one period. In the second period Jay Turmel made a rink length rush and fired the puck past Pat Hayes to tie the score at 2-2. The winning goal was set up by the hustle of Mike Hart. Hart stole the puck along the boards and sent it back to Tom Novelline at the left point. Novelline passed to Mark Durkee in the slot and Durkee converted for the third and winning goal.

Strong forechecking by Kathy Donovan and Rob Moody and great defensive performances by Bobby Smith and Larry Aiello along with outstanding goaltending by Mark Beaudoin helped Indian Ridge to hold off North Andover Supply and preserve the win.

Haffner's 6 - Bowne of Boston 5 Haffner's extended their unbeaten

Tom Long, Dan Zappalla (2) and Burke Harrington scored to make it 4-1 Haffner's and what looked like the start of a rout. Bowne refused to

Top Teams Keep Winning Ways

By Rick Harrison

The rich got richer in the Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate Blue Division last week, as the top teams continued to win in action at the West Junior High, West Elementary and South School gyms.

Undefeated Christ Church C (8-0), master of the close victory, nudged Ballardvale United B in overtime, 23-21, while unbeaten West Parish B coasted to a lopsided 59-2 decision over St. Robert's D to hike its record to 7-0.

South Church remained just a game behind with a 34-6 romp over Ballardvale United A, and St. Robert's C remained in solid contention by rolling over St. Augustine F, 24-0.

In other Intermediate Blue play, West Parish C trimmed St. Robert's F, 26-18, and St. Augustine E slipped past Christ Church B, 14-6.

West Parish B, 59-2

Andy Lee, playing his final game for West B prior to moving to Maryland, poured through 20 points and took over the division scoring lead to spark the winners in their game against St. Robert's D at West Junior High.

Lee netted six points in the first quarter,

Lee added 10 points and lefty guard Mike Lane six to ignite an 18-point third stanza, and Matt Geiger's six points showed the way in the final quarter.

Nine different players scored for West B, with Mike Lane producing 10 points for his third double-figure game of the season.

Kurt Burzlaff and Robbie Thompson contributed 8 points apiece, Matt Geiger swished 6, and single baskets were notched by Billy O'Brien, Jeff Larsen and Robbie DiAdamo.

Mark Geiger pocketed a free throw, while Dave Sullivan also played a solid all-around game.

Burzlaff was his usual tough self under the boards, while Andy Lee and Mike Lane made numerous steals and handed out several assists each.

Tom Sheehan beat the game-ending buzzer with a 15-foot bucket for St. Robert's D, and other hustling efforts came from Jim Murphy, Tracy Danner, Jennifer Morris, Rick Tesman and Erik Green.

Christ C, 23-21 (ot)

Bart Kalkstein and Bob Beanland led a fourth period Christ C surge to tie the game 20-20 at the end of regulation time, and Kalkstein netted all three C-C points during the two-minute OT session as the co-leaders nipped Ballardvale B at South School.

It marked the third time this season that Christ C has won by three or fewer points.

Kalkstein collected five points in the opening quarter, as Christ C jumped to a 7-2 lead, but John Bird and Scott Jangro paced BU during the middle two periods as it inched ahead 16-14.

Beanland stuffed two baskets and Kalkstein converted a pair of free throws as C-C pulled even, and Kalkstein's three in overtime sealed the victory.

Kalkstein finished with 11 points, Beanland hooped 8 and Dave Pratt 4.

Defensive standouts included Jon Pratt, Jim Robinson and Dave Lewis.

Scott Jangro of BU was game-high marksman with 13 points, including a free throw in overtime as United's only marker.

John Bird and Bob Nutter chipped in 4 points apiece, and fine floor games were played by Mike Mooney, Dave Beah, Steve Smith and Andy Burke.

South, 31-6

South had little trouble posting its sixth straight victory, racing to a 14-4 halftime lead and using a 12-0 third quarter outburst to clinch the triumph over Ballardvale A at South School.

Scott Wilkins led nine South players into the scoring column with a game-high 10 points, Robbie Schmidt fired through 6, Phil Stocking 4 and big John Todt 4.

Flipping through single fieldgoals were Dave Sorrie, Matt Lavin, Robbie Hendry, Dave Wads and Scott Brink.

The answering fire for BU was provided by Jim Ward, Mike Hulsey and Scott Sarcione, each of whom notched a two-point-er.

Other notables for United were Dave Rehe, Andy McIntyre, Andy Meckel and Steve Sarcione.

St. Robert's C, 24-0

St. Robert's C (5-20) produced the league's first Intermediate Division shut-out, throwing a tight defensive blanket around St. Augustine F in action at West Elementary School.

A bucket by Matt Gibson and two free throws from Gary Marotta in the opening quarter were all the offense necessary, but St. Robert's C increased its lead by adding seven points in the second stanza, four in the third and nine more in the fourth.

Gary Marotta finished as high scorer with 8 points, brother Cliff Marotta hooped 6, 10-year-old point-guard Gibson 5, Jeff Nazzaro three free throws and Greg Harris a bucket.

Greg and Steve DeVoir, Michelle Belisle and Dave Dilling were defensive and rebounding stalwarts.

The St. Augustine F sparkplugs included Brian Costello, Sean Derrah, Bob Finneran, Brian Hannan, Brendan Lynch, Casey Pant and Jason Scarpaci.

West Parish C, 26-18

Talented guard Mike DiMeo was practically a one-boy wrecking crew for West Parish C, pouring through a season-high 24 points as that team dumped St. Robert's F at the West Junior High.

DiMeo pocketed eight points in the first quarter, eight more in the second, six in the third and two in the fourth to personally destroy St. Robert's victory hopes.

Kurt Nickerson added a last period basket for West C, while solid performances were added by Kyle Marcella, Sean Dyer, John Hess and Jeff Patrakis.

John Slavin powered the St. Robert's F charge with 8 points. Jim Davis dunked 4, and solo baskets were netted by Joey Massaro, Sean Melia and Dave McSweeney. Tim Melia and Jav Cheney also played well.

St. Augustine E, 14-6

St. Augustine E rode 6-0 scoring sprees in the first and third quarters to its conquest of Christ Church B at West Elementary.

Junior Church League Action

By She Livermore

St. Robert C continued to please their fans with another victory last week. The cellar team last year with a 1-9 record, this year St. Robert C with eight returning players plus two new 8 year olds, has dominated the West Division and remains undefeated. In the East, Christ A is also undefeated, with St. Augustine C in second spot with only one loss.

West Division:

St. Augustine A 24
St. Robert B 11

St. Augustine A held a slim lead at the end of the third quarter, with Patrick Kelly responsible for 10 of their 13 points. In the final quarter, Kelly pumped in 9 more to give him a season high of 19 points, and St. Augustine's the victory.

John Davies contributed 3 points and Chris Caltigione tossed in a single for the victors.

Patrick Romano led St. Robert's with 5 points, Chris Sullivan tossed in 2 baskets, and Greg Masse's single made it 11 points.

Billy Tobin, Tom Torrisi and Andy Weiner were the defensive stars for the victors: Kim Davies, Chris Jarek and Derek Leahy turned in fine performances for St. Robert's.

St. Robert A 21

St. Robert D 12

St. Robert's A line-up held a 3 point advantage at the end of the second quarter. They erupted in the third quarter, pumping in 10 points and the D line-up could never catch up.

Danny Fay led the victors with 8 points, Matt Perry contributed 7, and Jonathon

Church League

Andy Pauline was the big gun for the victors, stuffing 6 points, while mark Russell pocketed 4, Dave Schwind 2 and Brandon McCue 2.

Defensive leaders included Steve Surette, Bartley Parker, Jose Guerra and Chris Hardy.

Sandra Lyons tossed in 3 points, Lori Ahouse 2 and Adam Smith swished a free throw for Christ B.

Meranda, Danny French (first career basket!) and Chris Landers tossed in a basket apiece.

Team high scorer Chris Lane was held to 4 points by good defense, and Mike Hein, John Mattola, James Kaliegh and Paul VanDerWielen contributed a basket apiece.

Dan Moynihan and Dan French turned in fine performances for the victors; Andy Bedell was the stand-out for St. Robert's D.

West Parish 13 Temple Emmanuel 1

West Parish toppled Temple Emmanuel in the upset of the season. Dave Carnes, Scott Clementi, Adam Guild, Chris Kew and Scott Livermore, the only players on hand for West Parish turned in their best performance so far by denying Temple Emmanuel's full complement of players any good scoring opportunities.

Dave Carnes pumped in 9 points, his season high, and Adam Guild contributed 4 to the upset victory.

Temple Emmanuel's lone basket was earned by Andy Greenstein.

St. Robert C 34
St. Augustine B 0

Superior play by St. Robert's enabled them to win a lopsided 34-0 victory to maintain their lead in the West Division. St. Augustine's normally strong defensive unit could not overcome the excellent passing skills of the division leaders.

Almost every player contributed to the final score. James Spinelli led the scoring with 10 points, Mark Schwetz, Brendon McGrail and Brad Reghitto added 6 points apiece, and Stephen Spinelli, Kevin Murphy and Jerome Guerard each flipped in a solo.

Mike Faraci, Mike Smith and Paul DeMarco were the stand-outs for the leaders: Brian Page, Chris Allard, Neil Fater and Dawn Fater worked hard for St. Augustine's.

Lakers Gain Two-Game Edge

Balanced scoring and some clutch free throw shooting in the final quarter boosted the undefeated, defending champion Lakers to a hard-fought 43-36 victory over the Bullets to highlight Andover Youth Basketball League Senior Division play last week at East Junior High.

Had the Bullets won they would have tied the Lakers for first place, but now the Lakers enjoy a two-game edge with the season just four games old.

The Hawks registered their first triumph in last week's other contest, riding the sharpshooting of Tim Perry to a 41-31 conquest of the Kings.

Lakers, 43-36

Both the Lakers and Bullets finished the game with 15 fieldgoals, but the front-runners won it at the free throw line where they fielded a 13-6 edge.

The Lakers were clinging to a slim 29-28

Fish Derby Scheduled Sunday

The North Andover Firefighter, Local 2035, are sponsoring their Annual Ice Fishing Tournament for Muscular Dystrophy for the third year. Trophies will be awarded to the top three fish caught, by weight. In addition, there will be various prizes awarded that have been donated by local merchants; the top prize being a food certificate in the amount of $100.

The tournament will be held on Lake Cochichewick in North Andover on Feb. 8, with a snow date of Feb. 15. Registration for the tournament will be at the North Pumping Station on Rte. 133; at the parking lot of Rolling Ridge Conference Center; at the parking area at the Legion Beach of Stevens Pond. Registration begins at 6 a.m. on Feb. 8, or in advance at the Central Fire House on Main Street in North Andover.

In conjunction with the tournament there will be a cross-country ski day held on Weir Hill, courtesy of the trustees of reservations. A course will be laid out by firefighters and those wishing to compete will be doing so against a clock. Medals donated by the Peter Piantidosi Insurance Agency will be awarded. A donation is asked for those competing in the skiing. Parking for this event will be most convenient at the Legion Beach parking area. This event will start at 10 a.m.

Coffee, hot dogs and beans will be available at the beach area. All proceeds for these events will go to help Muscular Dystrophy.

lead entering the final quarter, having overcome an early 8-4 deficit, and they sealed the victory by connecting on 8-of-16 free throws in the last eight minutes.

For the game, the Lakers swished 13-of-33 foul shots to the Bullets' 6-for-16.

Brian Sheehy emerged as game-high scorer for the Lakers with 14 points, while Alan Pelletier contributed 12. Tom Flynn 8 and Dave Epstein 5.

Lisa Marcella swished a pair of free throws, as did Jay Thibodeau, completing the Lakers' attack.

Terry Burke led seven Bullet performers into the scoring column with 10 points. Tom Moon netted 8, Dean Lockwood and Eugene Sullivan 6 each, Mike O'Connell 2, Steve Zaimes 2 and Jim Fearing two free throws.

Robby Pauline chipped in a hustling defensive performance for the Bullets, whose only other setback was a season-opening 47-24 loss to the Lakers.

Hawks, 41-31

The Hawks, who dropped a 36-25 decision to the Kings earlier this year without Tim Perry, followed his 23-point lead to victory the second time around.

The Kings inched ahead 12-10 in the first period, and the score was tied 16-16 at halftime.

Perry tossed in five points and Greg McAnern four during the third quarter, where an 11-6 run gave the Hawks a 27-22 lead, and Perry produced eight more in the final session as the Hawks wrapped up the triumph with a 14-9 advantage.

McAnern ended up with 9 points, Mike Coelho 7 and Tom Novelline 2 in support of

Andover 8 - Medford 10

Andover threw a real scare into Medford, one of the top three teams in their division, and also the team with the lowest "goals against" record. They not only almost won the game, but they also put eight goals past the supposedly invincible defense.

As the score indicates, Andover's effort wasn't a defensive gem. Their back checking game was off, but not as badly as might appear. The real difference in this game was Medford's John Duffy, probably the biggest, fastest, strongest and most talented player Andover has seen this year. He scored six of Medford's ten goals, most of them on breakaways, on which he just blew by everybody and put exceptional moves on the unprotected goalies. Outside of the trouble in containing this excellent opponent, goalies Chris Hansberry and Tim Adams played some very good goal for Andover.

Andover kept up a strong offensive attack throughout the game, with very few lapses. They scored twice on the first shift, and tallied their last final just at the final buzzer. Mark Berberian scored the first and last goals, both times being assisted by Dave Riddiford and Bill Bruno on some excellent digging and scrambling. Ten seconds after the first goal, Riddiford drove home a shot off a good play by Berberian to get a loose puck over to him. Bruno had the third goal from heavy traffic in front, with Riddiford getting another assist on the play.

Matt Alden seemed to be everywhere in the offensive zone, along with linemates Dan Hagerty and Mike Nelligan. They had several chances, including a fine centering pass on which Nelligan missed the net by inches with a quick backhand.

The defensemen were tested all night by Medford's hard skating attack. In the first period, again in the third, Gregg Tormey and Tom Tormey, and Mark Needham and Peter Trede worked hard to kill off two Medford power plays. John Gangi and Brian Gibson provided a lot of offensive work at the blue lines, and Gangi got his second goal in as many games when he moved in deep to pick up a loose puck and rifle in a hard wrist shot.

About the middle of the second period Medford seemed to neutralize two of Andover's line, but Chris Sapuppo, Kyle McCabe and Matt Young got hot and contributed the next three goals. First, Sapuppo took a pass from McCabe and swung down the boards and behind the goal line to slide a pass to Young in front for a clean shot and score. Finally, Sapuppo and McCabe combined with Peter Trede to muscle the puck past what looked like a solid wall of Medford jerseys, and Young charged in from the side to top in the loose puck with a diving poke shot that carried him into the net behind it.

Then, after tremendous pressure in front, Berberian just beat the final buzzer with his second goal of the game.

PeeWee A

Andover 8 - Swampscott 5

Andover's PeeWee A's won their 22 game of the year on Sunday, Feb. 1, when they defeated Triton 8-5 in Danvers League action. Andover dominated the first 30 minutes of the game; building up a 7-1 lead before some sloppy play in their own zone gave Swampscott four third period goals. Mark Neaves was the offensive star of the game for Andover, scoring four goals and setting up two others. Goalie Kenny Young was the defensive star, counting two snuffs of breakaways among his 20 saves.

Andover scored three times in the first period while holding Swampscott scoreless. Mosa Kaleel scored off a nice Mark Neaves setup at the five minute mark for the first goal. Mark scored the next two Andover goals, twice converting fine passes off the stick of defenseman David Curtis. Andover defensemen Matt Shine and Stevie Donovan were outstanding in the period, helping to hold Swampscott to only five shots on net and no goals.

Swampscott scored on a breakaway less than two minutes into the middle period to close the gap to 3-1, but Jamie O'Brien scored from a scramble in front and David Bartle scored on a nice wrist shot to make it 5-1 entering the final 12 minutes. Ex-

How we improved the 1980 Rabbit Diesel:

Introducing the 1981 Rabbit Diesel.

We never seem to just let well enough alone.

Our 1981 model actually has an engine that's even bigger than last year's. Which means you'll get a more powerful car, with better acceleration and passing power.

Plus the kind of astonishing mileage and superb comfort our Rabbit tempted you with last year. In fact, EPA estimated 42 mpg, 56 mpg highway estimate. (Use "estimated mpg" for comparison. Mpg varies with speed, trip length, weather. Actual highway mpg will probably be less.)

cellent corner play by winger Earl Abdo and point play by defenseman Paul Gilmartin earned both players assists on Jamie's goal while Cort Pomeroy's work behind the net set up David's goal and earned him an assist. Andover had other chances in the second period as both Georgie Heseltine on a backhander and Shannon McCabe on a wrist shot were robbed by the Swampscott goalie from in close.

Andover scored twice before the third period was two minutes old to insure the victory. The first goal was scored by Mosa Kaleel from the slot—his second goal of the game—after a good pass from Paul Gilmartin. The second was scored by Mark Neaves from just outside the crease after an excellent setup from the corner by center Jeff McNeil. Swampscott then scored twice before Mark Neaves again scored off a nice Jeff McNeil pass from behind the net for his fourth goal of the game. The two assists gave Jeff McNeil five points in his last two Danvers games as he scored a three goal hat trick against Lynnfield two weeks ago. Two more Swampscott goals made it 8-5 with over five minutes left but the fore-and-backchecking of Andover center David Young and winger Timmy Donovan helped settle the A's down and they held on for the win.

Raytheon Reports Increase

Raytheon Company reported record sales, earnings, and earnings per share for the tenth consecutive year. Net income increased 17.4 percent on a 14.9 percent sales increase over 1979.

Net income for 1980 was $282.3 million, or $6.80 per share, compared to $240.3 million, or $5.83 per share, in 1979. In 1980 sales increased to $5.002 billion from $4.354 billion a year earlier.

Principal contributors to the record performance were government electronic systems, aircraft products, geophysical exploration, and Amana appliances.

All 1979 data has been restated to reflect the merger of Beech Aircraft Corporation, which became a wholly-owned subsidiary of Raytheon in February 1980. The merger has been accounted for as a pooling of interests.

In the fourth quarter of 1980 Raytheon's net income was $68.4 million, or $1.64 a share, versus $59.0 million, or $1.43 a share, in 1979. Fourth quarter sales increased to $1.328 billion from $1.147 billion a year earlier.

Earnings per share for the full year are based on the average number of shares outstanding during the year. This was 41.5 million in 1980 and 41.3 million in 1979. Average shares outstanding in the fourth quarter of 1980 were 41.6 million compared with 41.3 million a year earlier.

At year end Raytheon's total backlog stood at $5.732 billion compared with $5.079 billion at the end of 1979. The U.S. government-funded portion of the backlog amounted to $1.977 billion compared with $1.504 billion a year earlier.

Provision for federal and foreign taxes in 1980 was $197.2 million. In 1979 the tax provision was $177.5 million. In the fourth quarter, tax provisions were $48.7 million in 1980 and $47.9 million in 1979.

Raytheon employed 77,900 people worldwide at the end of 1980. A year earlier, employment was 77,800.

have budgeted more funds than necessary for an assessment from the Greater Lawrence Sanitary district for the town's sewage treatment, because the town has not yet received a final assessment. That anticipated reduction could free additional funds for the police budget, Clark said.

While the police department may be understaffed, it still managed to decrease the incidence of "all major categories of crime" by 30 percent last year, through a crime prevention program and increased cooperation with the school department, Clark told the selectmen.

But, if it were not for Proposition 2½ and its hold on the budget, "I would be requesting a patrolman and a lieutenant this year, over and above the patrolmen that I requested last year. A year ago, I was fighting for an increase in police and fire personnel, with the emphasis on police," the manager said.

"Increasing the public service staffs has been one of my main objectives as manager."

But even in the absence of sufficient numbers of supervisors, some steps have already been taken to keep a closer watch on the patrol officers, Johnson told the board.

To help supervise the patrolmen, tachographs have been installed in every marked police car. The tachograph is an instrument that monitors "when the car is stopped, when it is idling, when it is moving, and how far it goes," Johnson explained.

The tachographs have helped to "keep the cars moving," he said, noting that mileage on the police cars has increased "drastically," while the amount of gas consumed has not.

But even with the increased efficiency brought about by the use of tachographs and other successful measures such as the crime prevention program, the Andover police department is still seriously undermanned, the chief said.

"Everybody keeps talking about all our new industrial land and the tax revenues it brings in, but my department gets the workload from it," Johnson pointed out. "We have more traffic, larceny and accidents now — but we don't have the personnel to do it all."

Appointed Director

Helen Caldwell of Johnson Road, Andover, has been appointed a program director in the School of Continuing Education, Babson College.

Mrs. Caldwell was engaged in similar work at Suffolk University, and previously was employed by a Boston investment firm. She holds a bachelor's degree in history from Suffolk and an MBA from Boston College.

Regan Is Promoted At Shawmut

Regan joined the Shawmut organization in 1973 and has had various positions in the Banking Division, most recently as vice president in the Commercial Finance Department. In his new position as vice president of the Shawmut Credit Corporation, he will be responsible for credit administration.

Regan is a graduate of Boston University with a B.S. degree in Business Administration. He is a member of various manufacturing and marketing associations, a member of the President's Council of the Institute of Management, a licensed real estate broker, a member of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Holy Name Society, and manager of a Little League baseball team. In the past, he was active in scouting.

He resides in Andover with his wife, Julie, and four children.

ROAD TO WEALTH

A good deal of our tax money is used for roads. If the road funds are used wisely, it is money well spent. Communities and even empires can rise and fall on the basis of their roads. Roads carry the lifeblood of humanity, and have human qualities such as arteries and lifelines ascribed to them. Even when civilizations die, their roads may endure. This is certainly true of Roman and Inca roads.

What has this dissertation to do with real estate? Just this — roads (especially highways) increase the value of land in its path. Just as population pressure can create the need for roads, new roads can pave the way for population increases. This, in turn, increases the demand (and the price) of property. When buying raw land as an investment, take a hard look at available roads and planned highways. It has often been said that if investors just followed the route of proposed freeways in this country, and bought properly-priced future freeway frontage close to population centers, they could make a great deal of money.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

percent at Shawsheen, for a net increase of 1 percent.

"So while we conserved 18 percent," Seifert said, "we just about broke even on costs."

The big culprit, however, is the all-electric high school.

Kilowatt usage is up only 8 percent (from 1,360,500 KWH's in 1979 to 1,474,250 KWH's in 1980), despite a 25 percent colder season.

But the cost of heating the high school has risen a whopping 48.7 percent, from $68,934 to $102,544.

Only the president of the electric company, Seifert said, would be able to explain that, and he added that he didn't feel only OPEC was to blame.

January's fuel charge was $25,000 at the high school alone.

School Chairman Elaine Viehmann said she felt they need to give serious consideration to solar heating at the high school, and Committeeman Donald Robb agreed that they should at least investigate the possibility. But, he added, he feels it is "almost essential" to rethink the school calendar for next year.

Considering the financial constraints placed on the system by Prop. 2½, he said, "we could wipe out 15 to 10 teachers to pay the electric bill there (at the high school)."

Kevin Canavan of the high school's Student Advisory Council, told the committee that "the kids who are at the high school trying to get an education," are finding it very difficult. Despite all the extra dollars, he said, the rooms were "very cold" during December and January.

He said it takes a lot away from their attitude when they have to sit in a cold room for six hours.

Rusty Dunbar of the Finance Committee said she had heard from teachers that some are freezing in one part of the high school while some are boiling in another. Even during the cold December, she said she heard some were having to open windows on the second floor.

Jim Redmond, president of the Andover Education Association, added that his building representatives have reported inconsistencies in other schools as well.

Seifert said a log is kept of inconsistencies, and encouraged teachers to record them, so they could be checked out.

He added that the BOSS system (a computer watchdog hook-up) saved the system some $9000 last year. When an area is overheated, he said, it notifies BOSS, and the school gets a telephone call to turn down the heat in a particular area.

Seifert will be returning to the school committee with a three-year record of energy consumption in every school, along with degree day comparisons.

THE CQ FACTOR

In this impatient generation, short-cuts to success are common goals. Using this make-it-quick technique, some succeed, some do not. At Towne Deli we are old fashion . . . we believe in getting there via the long haul, the no-short-cut route.

To accomplish the latter, we constantly apply the CQ Factor and require all of our employees to be so guided. Care and Quality from the management, the cooks, our counter people, everyone! Attentive, pleasant service. No prepared foods doctored up to appear home-made. All of our food is home-made, using only the highest quality food products. The taste will tell you this is so.

Offering a superb menu from sandwiches to complete dinners at reasonable prices and served in the pleasant atmosphere of our airy dining room. Towne Deli has to fit into your "eating out" plans this week and every week!
